Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the project will provide financing to United Nations agencies (Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, United Nations Development Programme, United Nations Children's Fund, and the World Food Programme) to help sustain delivery of essential services to the people of Afghanistan and secure the basis for the future development of the country through enhancing food security, maintaining provision of core public health services, sustaining access to primary and secondary education (especially for girls), and ensuring project implementation and monitoring capacity. Delivery of the project will be through the non-governmental organizations. As ADB placed on hold its sovereign and non-sovereign assistance to Afghanistan effective 15 August 2021, the implementation of this project will be outside of the public financial management system.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
