Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) will build technical capacity among Asian Development Bank (ADB) members eligible for Asian Development Fund (ADF) grants or concessional ordinary capital resources lending (COL) in sovereign debt sustainability assessment methods and debt management strategies. The TA will be conducted at the country and regional levels through targeted training and support activities, both remotely and on-site, and possibly over a longer period to secure more effective and lasting transfer of the knowledge. Drawing on an international pool of consultants and Economic Research and Regional Cooperation Department (ERCD) resources, the TA team will tailor training and analytical support to meet recipients' specific circumstances and needs, which the team will identify in consultation with stakeholders from developing member countries (DMCs) and ADB regional departments.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
