Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the proposed transaction technical assistance (TA) facility will allow ADB to provide project preparatory assistance, including policy advice, technical support, policy dialogue, capacity building, and due diligence to prepare the 2022–2024 lending pipeline. The ensuing programs and projects encompass a variety of government reforms to strengthen capital markets, financial inclusion, domestic resource mobilization, fiscal decentralization, labor markets, and industrial competitiveness in ADB’s developing member countries (DMCs) in Southeast Asia.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
