Project Description

The knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) will help ADB and executing and implementing agencies in selected developing member countries (DMCs) to develop and enhance systems, policies, and protocols to prevent, mitigate and respond to risks of Sexual Exploitation, Abuse and Harassment (SEAH) in ADB financed sovereign projects with civil works. The TA will contribute to collection of evidence and data, and preparation of qualitative assessment of gaps and issues to be filled and addressed to effectively support ADB operations in addressing SEAH risks and raising awareness and strengthening the capacities of government agencies as well as non-government organizations and service providers in SEAH prevention, risk mitigation, and response following good practices and principles of a survivor-centered approach. The TA will be implemented in five DMCs which will be identified in close consultation with ADB regional departments and government stakeholders.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
