Project Description

According to the ADB, the knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) will provide the China Institute of Finance and Capital Markets, a policy research institute under the China Securities Regulatory Commission, with technical support and institutional capacity development to formulate core recommendations for developing a capital markets and investment regulatory framework for a Pillar III pension scheme in the People's Republic of China (PRC). A pension system requires three pillars, and Pillar III individual pensions have not yet been established in the PRC. In this context, the proposed TA will support the preparation of a capital markets and investment regulatory framework that is central to the development of Pillar III.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
