Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) program will address requests from the governments of the developing member countries (DMCs) of the Central and West Asia Department (CWRD) of the Asian Development Bank (ADB) to support their post-coronavirus disease (COVID-19) green recovery by enabling the strategic adoption of globally acceptable sustainable financing standards and practices by their sovereign institutions. To achieve the Strategy 2030 objectives, the TA program will help enhance the capabilities of CWRD DMC sovereign institutions to conceptualize sustainable financing strategies, identify priority investment projects, facilitate appropriate private sector participation, address institutional barriers, and adopt internationally accepted sustainable financing practices.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
