Project Description

According to the ADB, the transaction technical assistance (TA) facility will provide comprehensive project preparation and implementation startup support, including project due diligence, capacity development, policy advice, and other relevant assistance to a series of ensuing projects under the Asian Development Bank 2024-2025 People's Republic of China (PRC) project pipeline that addresses environmental and climate change challenges. The project proposals comprise (i) Hainan Disaster Risk Financing and Resilience Project, (ii) Industrial Park Decarbonization Project, (iii) Shandong Qixia Ecological Conservation Demonstration Project, and (iv) South Dongting Lake Wetland Ecological Restoration and Sustainable Development Project. The four project proposals are aligned with the ADB's PRC Country Partnership Strategy 2021-2025 to address environmentally sustainable development and climate change adaptation and mitigation. They contribute to the PRC's aspiration and commitments under the PRC's 14th Five-Year Plan (2021-2025) to achieve a higher quality growth.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
