Project Description

As stated by the ADB, the proposed project would support the Government of Mongolia in developing a cohesive national financial, legal, and policy framework that would be the basis for delivery of integrated elderly care services while clearly delineating roles and responsibilities for agencies such as the MLSP, MOH, and Ministry of Finance (MOF) and aimag level structures. Best practices on delivery of elderly care services from other countries such as the People's Republic of China, Japan, and the Republic of Korea would be studied and adapted as appropriate. Innovative financing mechanisms for elderly care such as publicprivate partnerships will also be explored.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
