Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the TA is aligned with the following impact: Improved digital policies and regulations in ADB developing member countries (DMCs). The TA will have the following outcome: enhanced understanding and capacity of DMCs to develop digital policies and regulations in line with global standards for digital cooperation and build credible data governance. By documenting the practical application of digital policies and regulations at the national level in selected countries, the project will allow policy makers to learn from experiences, and advise them on the institutional, policy and regulatory reforms to be undertaken domestically.

Responsible ADB Officer: Crivelli, Pramila A.

Responsible ADB Department: Economic Research and Regional Cooperation Department

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
