Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the TA will produce a legal toolkit to provide expanded policy options and legal mechanisms for the protection of ecosystems that are vital carbon sinks, home to rich biodiversity and sources of livelihoods. Although the TA will have particular focus on forests, it will cover oceans, given their significance to food and economic security and climate change especially in the Pacific developing member countries (DMCs).

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
