Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the demand for this TA evolved from the changing regional dynamics in the post-coronavirus disease (COVID-19) environment and the emerging business needs to (i) address climate change impact, and (ii) promote high-quality growth. In particular, the TA will provide innovative financial solutions to address the emerging sectors, including those in which the project commercial bankability is yet to be achieved. These areas include, for example, net zero agricultural transformation, ecosystem conservation and biodiversity on the East Asian-Australasia Regional Flyway, and disaster risk finance. The TA will support policy advice, capacity building, research and development, and knowledge development and dissemination.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
