Project Description

As stated by the ADB, this technical assistance will finance research and development collaboration between ADB and private sector and/or nonprofit entities, in sectors including finance, education, and technology, among others. TA activities may include site visits, pilot and experiment designs, data collection and processing, as well as knowledge sharing and capacity building through workshops, presentations, and/or publications. Knowledge products from the TA will have a multicountry perspective or case studies with regional applications, which will support policymaking and research within ADB's regional members.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
