Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the proposed Strengthening Governance and Accountability in the Public Sector Program will build on and expand the scope of reforms supported through previous Asian Development Bank (ADB) policy-based lending. The proposed program aims to improve governance and accountability across the public sector in Papua New Guinea (PNG) by strengthening fiscal management and improving SOE governance and accountability institutions through three mutually reinforcing reform areas.

Contact Information

No contacts available at the time of disclosure.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
