Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, on December 13, 2023, the third Technical Assistance (TA) cluster for the Independent Evaluation Department (IED) was approved. This TA cluster will fund IED's annual three-year rolling work programs from 2025 to 2027 and includes three subprojects aimed at enhancing the development effectiveness of the Asian Development Bank (ADB) and the Asia-Pacific region. Subproject 1, which will focus on evaluations conducted from the last quarter of 2024 through mid-2026, is designed to boost accountability and learning within ADB through independent assessments. This will support the evolution and refinement of ADB's policies, processes, and operations.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
