Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the technical assistance (TA) will support finance sector sovereign operations and the Asian Development Banks (ADB) One ADB initiatives in its Pacific developing member countries (DMCs). The TA will support project development informed by strategic policy dialogue and knowledge work, project and program design, processing and implementation, and capacity development. In this context, the TA will support sector diagnostics, solution-oriented knowledge products, policy dialogue and technical support for reforms, associated due diligence, implementation readiness, capability development, and other design and implementation activities. The TA will support programs and projects aligned with the national development strategies of ADBs Pacific DMCs and ADBs development mandate, and incorporate gender-inclusive and climate-resilient elements while addressing key constraints in the finance sector.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
