Project Description

The technical assistance (TA) will support the Government of India in enhancing the performance of its portfolio by conducting client-oriented, crosscutting, and operationally relevant capacity-building and knowledge-sharing programs. The TA will cover capacity building on Asian Development Bank (ADB) guidelines and procedures, and sector and thematic topics, through knowledge sharing and cross-learning sessions, including presentation of good practices. The TA will also support the conduct of tripartite portfolio review meetings (TPRMs) to support the delivery of the active portfolio and improve the project readiness and quality at entry of pipeline sovereign projects.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
