Project Description

According to the Bank's website, this TA will support the preliminary preparatory assessments for two coastal climate resilience investment projects in Karnataka and Kerala states. The assessments will include (i) preliminary institutional assessment, tentative project implementation structure, and capacity building requirement; (ii) preliminary environmental and social safeguards assessment; (iii) identification of coastal erosion and flood risk hotspots for current and future climate scenarios and preliminary assessment of suitable adaptation interventions; and (iv) support coordination with relevant state and central-level government agencies to advance government approval of the preliminary project report. The initial activities envisaged under the TA will support the development of the project concept note and provide a basis for the ensuing technical assistance to prepare the investment projects. The Karnataka and Kerala coastal climate resilience projects are tentatively programmed for commitment in 2025.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
