Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the proposed technical assistance (TA) will support the overall ecological protection and environmental sustainability of Erhai Lake Nature Reserve in Dali City, Yunnan Province, People's Republic of China (PRC). The TA will contribute to: (i) improving understanding of the current status, challenges, opportunities, and best practices for integrated lake ecosystem management; (ii) improve awareness and capacity of relevant stakeholders, including policymakers, farmers, agribusinesses, and community groups on sustainable environmental management of the Erhai Lake Basin; (iii) strengthen policy and institutional coordination for supporting comprehensive ecological and environmental lake management and water quality protection; and (iv) identify and prioritize investment opportunities to integrate nature-based solutions and management of water treatment infrastructure to optimize financial and environmental sustainability.

Investment Description

- Asian Development Bank (ADB)

The TA financing amount is $300,000, which will be financed on a grant basis by ADB's Technical Assistance Special Fund (TASF-other sources).

The government will provide counterpart support in the form of remuneration and local travel expenses of counterpart staff; provision of available and public relevant government data and studies for consultants' use; office accommodation and facilities, including use of meeting rooms; administrative assistance; and other in-kind contributions.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
