Project Description

According to the Bank's website, this TA will investigate the adverse consequences of school-age exposure to tropical storms and typhoons on education and pursuits during early adulthood in the Philippines. It will conduct a supplemental survey on child development and education, including conduct of cognitive and noncognitive tests for children aged 7-15 at least 12 months after the conclusion of the first wave of survey under the Philippine Socioeconomic Panel Survey. The data will be used to understand the socio-economic implications of climate change.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
