Project Description

According to the Bank's website, this technical assistance (TA) will support Asian Development Bank (ADB) developing member countries (DMCs) in advancing climate-smart urban development. It will assist India, Pakistan, and Uzbekistan, and their selected cities, at both national and subnational levels, in scaling up climate actions through the development of city climate action plans (CCAPs). CCAPs will facilitate city-wide climate risk assessment and greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions profiling, establishment of climate goals and targets, identification of priority climate actions, and required resources, including exploring innovative climate financing solutions for climate-smart urban development.

Investment Description

- Asian Development Bank (ADB)

The TA financing amount is $2,000,000, of which (i) $1,000,000 will be financed on a grant basis by the Republic of Korea e-Asia and Knowledge Partnership Fund; and (ii) $1,000,000 will be financed on a grant basis by the Urban Resilience Trust Fund under the Urban Financing Partnership Facility, both to be administered by ADB.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
