Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the proposed TA will provide strategic support in Bangladesh, India, and Nepal with a focus on supporting cities in responding to rapid urbanization including building resilience to climate change. It will aim to deliver comprehensive analytics on emerging issues impacting regional and urban planning, institutional strengthening, and urban development that encompasses economic, social, and environmental planning to accelerate action and create a transformative policy environment for holistic urban planning. It will also include supporting each country to deliver on their nationally determined contributions (NDCs). The TA will also enhance knowledge and capacity-building for local authorities and urban service providers, such as water and sanitation authorities, recognizing the importance of strengthening governance and the ability to deliver on strategic plans.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
