Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the technical assistance (TA) will support the Government of Nepal in enhancing the implementation of Asian Development Bank (ADB) assistance in the country, the related programming process, and the institutional capacity of the government by providing client-oriented, cross-cutting, and capacity building support. The TA will support the delivery of ADB's operational priorities 1, 2 and 6. It is included for 2024 approval and recorded in the aide-memoire of the 2024 country programming mission. The TA is aligned with ADB's country partnership strategy (CPS), 2020-2024 for Nepal, contributing to the priority area on policy reforms and capacity development of subnational governments for service delivery. It will also contribute to the forthcoming CPS, 2025-2029 for Nepal, which continues to place priority on capacity building for improved service delivery at all three-tiered federal system of governance, federal, provincial, and local.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
