Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the proposed technical assistance (TA) cluster aims to support communications, knowledge management, and portfolio management for Asian Development Bank's (ADB's) South Pacific Developing Member Countries (DMCs). The TA cluster will help implement the ADB Pacific Knowledge Plan, described in the Pacific Approach, 2021-2025, and will focus on building knowledge and capacity by enhancing the quality of country programming and portfolio management, as well as the visibility and sharing of experiences for ADB's Pacific operations. The TA cluster will support (i) developing dissemination knowledge products and services for country operations; (ii) implementing the forthcoming South Pacific Strategic Communications Plan; and (iii) providing targeted technical support to address project performance through enhanced assessment of and response to systemic and country-specific and emerging project specific issues.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
