Project Description

As stated by the ADB, the Technical assistance (TA) will support India's central and state governments, state-owned enterprises (SOE), financial institutions and urban local bodies (ULB) in developing projects and programs that promote growth and enhance climate resilience. The TA will provide upstream knowledge support and support institutional capacity building for development of sustainable projects that could be co-financed by Economic Development Cooperation Fund (EDCF), managed by Export-Import Bank of Korea (KEXIM), to meet India's needs for concessional financing, global knowledge and technical expertise.

This TA is aligned with Republic of Korea e-Asia and Knowledge Partnership Fund (EAKPF)'s priority areas, which include infrastructure (transportation, logistics, water, etc.), clean energy, climate change, and disaster risk management. Additionally, it encompasses several EDCF/ KEXIM priority states such as Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, West Bengal, Haryana, and Uttar Pradesh.

The executing agency will be the Department of Economic Affairs at the Ministry of Finance.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
