Project Description

The technical assistance (TA) by ADB aims to enhance women judges' leadership capabilities to increase their substantive participation in justice systems of Asian Development Bank (ADB) developing member countries (DMCs) through improved capacity to address barriers to empowerment. Building on ADB's long-standing relationship with judicial systems across its DMCs, the TA will support the Asia and the Pacific Women Judges Network (APWJN) to (i) foster regional knowledge and experience sharing, (ii) deliver national and regional capacity building programs starting in Nepal and the Philippines, and (iii) collect and disseminate judicial data and studies.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
