Project Description

According to bank's website, this regional cluster technical assistance (TA), Building Livable Urban Environments in the Pacific (Pac BLUE), aims to support selected Pacific developing member countries (DMCs), including the Cook Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Fiji, Kiribati, Palau, Republic of the Marshall Islands, Solomon Islands, Samoa, and Tuvalu. The TA will deliver a consolidated program of project preparation, implementation support, knowledge generation, and capacity development to address priority urban development and water security challenges across the region. Major activities include upstream diagnostics and feasibility studies for climate resilient water and urban investments; on-demand implementation support to strengthen procurement, contract management, financial management and safeguards performance of ongoing ADB financed projects; and the development and dissemination of regional knowledge products and services, training including peer learning platforms, to support resilient, inclusive, and water secure urban development in Pacific DMCs.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
