Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the proposed Technical Assistance (TA) program aims to support developing member countries (DMCs) in implementing trade facilitation initiatives by promoting green and digital solutions and other necessary supports such as improvement of single window systems, implementation of paperless trade, and enhancement of electronic data exchange. The TA activities will be delivered through three channels; (i) bank-wide support, which will include knowledge products and knowledge sharing events to capture and disseminate emerging practices in green and digital trade facilitation; (ii) subregional support, which will include developing action plans, conducting analytical studies, and organizing meetings and workshops in collaboration with subregional economic cooperation programs; and (iii) country-level support, which will include tailored assistance to selected DMCs, addressing their specific needs and challenges.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
