Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the ADB funded transaction will provide a senior loan to Khan Bank for on-lending to (i) rural businesses, including micro, small and medium-sized enterprises (MSMEs), women-owned enterprises, farmers and herders; and (ii) agriculture processing and logistics enterprises. Loan proceeds will also support sustainable agriculture activities in accordance with the Mongolia Green Taxonomy.

The project aims to improve access to finance for rural businesses, farmers and herders, and expand the share of green loans in Khan Bank's portfolio. The project aims to boost agricultural value addition and export earnings by funding rural MSMEs, herders, farmers and agricultural and livestock processing enterprises. In addition, the project is expected to stimulate demand for farm and livestock production and thereby improve the income of herders and small farmers.
