Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the TA will support Mongolia's objective to build a more resilient and diversified economy. The reforms supported under the TA will help build a more resilient and diversified economy. The TA will also support the government to determine the scope and technical specifications of an integrated development policy and planning database, to inform medium-term policymaking.

The reforms supported under the TA will help reduce Mongolia's dependency on mining and build a more resilient and diversified economy. The TA will help the government determine the scope and technical specifications of an integrated development policy and planning database to inform medium-term policymaking. The TA is consistent with the government's Vision 2050, which prioritizes, (i) the promotion of macroeconomic stability, (ii) structural reforms and the promotion of priority economic sectors for export-oriented growth, and (iii) economic diversification and specialization.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
