Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the TA will support ADB DMCs across Asia and the Pacific in strengthening their PFM systems and institutions. The TA aims to enhance the quality, transparency, and effectiveness of PFM practices, contributing to better governance and sustainable development outcomes. These will be accomplished through knowledge-driven activities including:

- (i) development and refinement of PFM performance assessment tools and frameworks,
- (ii) targeted learning and outreach programs, and
- (iii) knowledge events and products to disseminate insights and best practices.

These activities will contribute to more effective PFM in Asia and the Pacific through better informed policy dialogue, stronger institutional frameworks, and cross DMC collaboration.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
