Driving Innovation in Gender Equality and Disability Inclusion Approaches for Private Sector Operations

Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the TA will support the development of knowledge, tools, and capacity for mainstreaming gender equality and disability inclusion in private sector operations across ACFP Countries. The TA will deliver operational support, evidence-based research and toolkits, and knowledge exchange events to enhance the capacity of private sector clients. The TA will also ensure the integration of gender and disability-responsive performance indicators, piloting of innovative tools, and the dissemination of lessons learned in line with ADB's Strategy 2030 and the 2024 Gender Equality and Disability Inclusion Guidelines.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
