Project Description

DESCRIPTION

According to the bank disclosure statement, the Technical Assistance project will support ADB's development of a PCE methodology and its implementation for various project types in Developing Member Countries (DMCs). It will also help build ADB's analytical foundation for PCE and support knowledge dissemination and capacity building across all operational departments and DMCs. The TA's impact is aligned with the long-term outcome of ADB's PSD Shift Operational Approach of promoting greater private sector participation in the development of Asia and the Pacific and developing capabilities for private sector development and private capital mobilization. The intended outcome of the TA is to enhance bank-wide capacity for enabling private sector development by strengthening the intentionality of operations and capacity development.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
