Project Description

According to the bank's website, "the TA seeks to support the PRC government's efforts to advance inclusive digital transformation in underdeveloped areas". Also, the proposed project "aims to enhance women's digital skills, expand e-commerce opportunities, and foster entrepreneurship".

"It will address gaps in education, employment, and social support. The key activities include e-commerce training programs, policy research and recommendations, and promotion of best practices through digital platforms and knowledge sessions. Innovative aspects of the project design include AI-driven training, hybrid (online-offline) service delivery, and real-time evaluation mechanisms to track outcomes and ensure sustainability".

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
