Project Description

As stated by the ADB, the proposed TA will support the preparation of loan projects, with a focus on prioritizing investments in key areas such as ecosystem restoration, biodiversity conservation, circular economy and low-carbon and energy transition, climate mitigation, air pollution control, and regional health security. Additionally, ADB will elevate nonlending operations through supporting policy reforms in the PRC, specifically aimed at the opening-up of the service sector, strengthening consumption-driven economic growth, and improving fiscal system, and enhancing private sector development. Furthermore, the TA will facilitate institutionalization of knowledge activities in the PRC to effectively coordinate knowledge sharing and capacity building activities. This will enable the transfer of innovative solutions between the PRC and other developing countries, contributing to sustainable and inclusive development across the Asia and the Pacific region. Key TA outputs will include: (i) Capacity and due diligence for loan project preparation strengthened; (ii) Policy advice and research on selected reform areas produced; and (iii) Knowledge creation and sharing of the development experience institutionalized.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
