Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the proposed program will strengthen the Government of Viet Nam's efforts to build a more competitive, investment-friendly business environment, driving higher enterprise formation and private investment.

By reducing regulatory burdens, improving transparency, and modernizing legal and institutional frameworks, the program will foster private sector development (PSD), stimulate job creation, and expand economic opportunities. It will promote innovation and financial inclusion, facilitate investment in high-impact sectors, and accelerate trade facilitation and digital integration. These reforms will advance Viet Nam's transition to digital government and position the private sector as the primary engine of sustainable, inclusive, and resilient growth.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
