Project Description

According to the bank disclosure statement, the Project Preparation Assistance Facility (PPAF) will help Cambodia improve project readiness by financing detailed engineering designs and bidding documents for priority infrastructure projects across sectors such as transport, energy, health, agriculture, water, digital, and tourism. The facility supports the government's Public Investment Management System Reform Strategy and Project Development Facility to ensure technically sound, implementation-ready projects, reduce startup delays, and enhance quality-at-entry. With an estimated cost of $15.43 million (ADB concessional loan: $15.0 million), PPAF will engage consultants for design and procurement preparation, accelerating the transition from concept to execution and enabling efficient, high-quality project implementation during its 2026-2032 implementation period.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
