Project Description

The overall project objective is to contribute to improving the food and nutrition security of the rural population, particularly women and young people, by developing the rice, maize and tuber (cassava, yam and potato) sub-sectors.

The project will cover the entire national territory. Project beneficiaries will be identified by the decentralized technical services of the Ministry of Agriculture and Livestock. It will directly benefit about 35,750 farmers, at least 30% of them women farmers, and 1650 livestock farms, including those owned and managed by women. The indirect beneficiaries are estimated to be 71,500 farmers and 3300 livestock breeders.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF AfDB

The Independent Review Mechanism (IRM), which is administered by the Compliance Review and Mediation Unit (CRMU), is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an African Development Bank (AfDB)-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the IRM, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a dispute resolution dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the AfDB complied with its policies to prevent environmental and social harms. You can submit a complaint electronically by emailing crmuinfo@afdb.org, b.kargougou@afdb.org, b.fall@afdb.org, and/or s.toure@afdb.org. You can learn more about the IRM and how to file a complaint at: https://www.afdb.org/en/independent-review-mechanism/
