Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the Liberia Youth Entrepreneurship Investment Bank (YEIB) supports the Government of Liberia's (GoL) 2018 to 2023 Pro-Poor Agenda for Prosperity and Development (PAPD). The project builds on the achievements of the Bank-financed (FAPA/TSFP-III). The Liberia YEIB is a pillar of the Program for Advancing Youth Entrepreneurship Investment (PAYEI). The YEIB will provide financial and nonfinancial services to the youth to start and scale their businesses by strengthening the overall entrepreneurship ecosystem and its stakeholders. The YEIB offers a coherent offer of services that will support the entrepreneurship journey of the youth. The YEIB will forge multi-stakeholder partnerships to mobilize capital to invest and coordinate the delivery of financial and nonfinancial services for entrepreneurs in a systemic, structured, scalable, and sustainable manner. The YEIB will be a youth-focused institution set up to unlock finance, market access, and development services for target youth-businesses.

The overarching goal of the Project is to strengthen financial and non-financial business service to young women and men entrepreneurs in ways that ensure inclusion, decrease vulnerabilities, and prepare for resilience and long-term sustainability of service provision. The project aims to: (1) Strengthen institutional stewardship and oversight of youth entrepreneurship support ecosystem; (2) Develop a Youth Entrepreneurship Investment Bank (YEIB) and its related entities.

Private Actors Description

As stated on the Alliance for Entrepreneurship in Africa's website, the Youth Entrepreneurship Investment Bank aims to strengthen service delivery to ecosystems and entrepreneurs, to promote private sector-led inclusive economic development, by creating entrepreneurship opportunities for the youth. Working at the intersection of public and private approaches, it supports countries in their efforts by setting up or transforming institutions (in line with best-performing examples around the globe) to address in the short, medium, and longterm, the set of market failures that impact entrepreneurship.

The Youth Entrepreneurship Investment Bank is an initiative of the African Development Bank.
