Project Description

As stated by the AfDB, the project development objective is to improve agricultural productivity in EAC Partner States by strengthening extension systems through innovative private sector led approaches and conducive policy environment. Specifically, it aims to (i) promote a regional approach to strengthening agriculture extension, (ii) enhance the role of digital extension in transforming agriculture, (iii) facilitate farmers' access to advice and information, (iv) facilitate adoption of climate-smart technologies and build resilience of farming communities, and (v) create job opportunities for young people, particularly in rural areas.

The project aims to benefit 5 million direct and indirect beneficiaries in EAC Partner States through improvements in agricultural extension systems reaching 3,000,000 farmers (50% women) in 4 years.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF AfDB

The Independent Review Mechanism (IRM), which is administered by the Compliance Review and Mediation Unit (CRMU), is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an African Development Bank (AfDB)-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the IRM, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a dispute resolution dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the AfDB complied with its policies to prevent environmental and social harms. You can submit a complaint electronically by emailing crmuinfo@afdb.org, b.kargougou@afdb.org, b.fall@afdb.org, and/or s.toure@afdb.org. You can learn more about the IRM and how to file a complaint at: <https://www.afdb.org/en/independent-review-mechanism/>
