Project Description

According to the bank website, the objective of the proposed project is to promote sustainable management of fisheries resources within the blue economy context in order to improve food and nutritional security, create employment through value chain activities, facilitate intra-regional trade, and build adaptive capacity. The specific objectives include:

• Promoting policy and regulatory harmonization of laws and standards towards fisheries and aquaculture value chains and fish trade within the SADC region.
• Improving fisheries governance, value chain competitiveness, and sustaining aquatic foods through integrated management plans and blue economy program development.
• Strengthening institutional capacity and knowledge towards adaptation and mitigation of impacts of climate change and build resilience to other vulnerabilities to the sector.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF AfDB

The Independent Review Mechanism (IRM), which is administered by the Compliance Review and Mediation Unit (CRMU), is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an African Development Bank (AfDB)-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the IRM, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a dispute resolution dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the AfDB complied with its policies to prevent environmental and social harms. You can submit a complaint electronically by emailing crmuinfo@afdb.org, b.kargougou@afdb.org, b.fall@afdb.org, and/or s.toure@afdb.org. You can learn more about the IRM and how to file a complaint at: https://www.afdb.org/en/independent-review-mechanism/
