Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the project concerns the Regional Harmonization of Regulatory Frameworks and Tools for Improved and Sustainable Electricity Regulation in ECOWAS. It's a regional initiative designed to enhance the sustainability of the electricity sector of the region through effective, uniform, transparent and enforceable regulatory frameworks that set out clear principles, rules, processes, and standards for ECOWAS. The project is to establish a harmonised regional electricity regulatory framework among ECOWAS member countries to enhance cross-border electricity trade across the region. It has a strong regional public goods character with strong regional impact and public interest in terms of capacity building and institutional strengthening that foster regional energy trade and integration.

The project has five components, namely: (i) Elaboration of Electricity Regulatory and Utility Key Performance Indicators (KPIs), (ii) Harmonised and Gender sensitive Comparison of Electricity Tariffs (HCET) in ECOWAS and Cost Reflectivity Assessment, (iii) Development of Gender Sensitive and climate-informed Energy Information and Database Management System (EIDBMS), (iv) Gender Sensitive Assessment of Investment bottlenecks and risks in ECOWAS member countries and (v) Program Management.

The objective of the program is to provide the 15 ECOWAS member countries with tools (through a combination of studies and capacity building) for harmonising regulatory frameworks of ECOWAS member countries to enhance regional and sustainable electricity trade.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF AfDB

The Independent Review Mechanism (IRM), which is administered by the Compliance Review and Mediation Unit (CRMU), is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an African Development Bank (AfDB)-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the IRM, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a dispute resolution dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the AfDB complied with its policies to prevent environmental and social harms. You can submit a complaint electronically by emailing crmuinfo@afdb.org, b.kargougou@afdb.org, b.fall@afdb.org, and/or s.toure@afdb.org. You can learn more about the IRM and how to file a complaint at: <https://www.afdb.org/en/independent-review-mechanism/>
