Project Description

According to the bank's documents, "The Project is expected to have a developmental impact on Cambodia through the expansion of leasing products for micro-entrepreneurs and consumers. The Borrower provides leases to clients for automobiles, motorbikes, and electronic appliances for personal useas well as in support of micro-business operations. For example, standard products include leases for trucks to support delivery of goods by micro-businesses or motorbikes for individuals to be used in accessing employment and income security. The focus on leases, rather than loans, enables the Borrower to serve lessorswho might otherwise be unable to obtain credit."

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Unlike many other development finance institutions, DFC does not currently have an access to information policy.

Under the United States Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), DFC is obliged to respond to reasonably formulated requests for Agency records. However, DFC may apply exemptions from release to certain types of information and may charge fees in responding to requests. DFC has a designated FOIA officer who is trained in how to respond to requests and implement the law. You can learn more about filing a FOIA request at: https://www.dfc.gov/foia

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE CORPORATION (DFC)

The Office of Accountability is an independent office that addresses complaints about environmental or social issues related to DFC-supported projects. The office provides communities an opportunity to have concerns independently reviewed and addressed. If you submit a complaint to the Office of Accountability, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a problem solving dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the DFC complied with its policies to prevent environmental, social, human rights, and labor harms.

You can find more information about the Office of Accountability at: https://www.dfc.gov/who-we-are/office-accountability
