Financial Institutions	US International Development Finance Corporation (DFC)
Status	Active
Bank Risk Rating	C
Sectors	Finance
Loan Amount (USD)	$ 37.50 million

Project Description

According to the DFC website:

DFC will provide a direct loan of up to $37,500,000 to Global Partnerships Impact-First Growth Fund, LLC (the “Borrower”). The funds will be used to support highly impactful social enterprises that expand opportunity for people living in poverty by providing basic products or services in the targeted areas of livelihoods, education, energy, health, housing, water, and sanitation (the “Project”). At the onset, the Borrower will prioritize social enterprises who, given the COVID-19 pandemic, require infusions of patient debt on attractive terms to resume growth and scale impact.

Investment Description

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Unlike many other development finance institutions, DFC does not currently have an access to information policy.

Under the United States Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), DFC is obliged to respond to reasonably formulated requests for Agency records. However, DFC may apply exemptions from release to certain types of information and may charge fees in responding to requests. DFC has a designated FOIA officer who is trained in how to respond to requests and implement the law. You can learn more about filing a FOIA request at: <https://www.dfc.gov/foia>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE CORPORATION (DFC)

The Office of Accountability is an independent office that addresses complaints about environmental or social issues related to DFC-supported projects. The office provides communities an opportunity to have concerns independently reviewed and addressed. If you submit a complaint to the Office of Accountability, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a problem solving dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the DFC complied with its policies to prevent environmental, social, human rights, and labor harms.

You can find more information about the Office of Accountability at: <https://www.dfc.gov/who-we-are/office-accountability>
