Project Description

According to bank provided information, the DAI Global, LLC, will implement technical assistance projects that include (without limitation) economic development, and capacity building and reform, for host country governments across 47 Project Countries to be funded by certain non-governmental, bilateral and multilateral institution donors.
This extension of an ongoing DFC insurance contract supports an array of political risk insurance for 47 Project Countries where DAI Global, LLC works with USAID and other international development partners to pursue social and economic development goals.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

Technical services projects are screened either as Category B or C under DFC's environmental and social guidelines depending on the specific circumstances of the project. This project has been screened as a Category B because DFC will be providing insurance on vehicles and property. The primary environmental and social issues associated with the Project involve the servicing and maintenance of vehicles and assurance of safe worker practices when operating vehicles or when building modifications are being made.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Unlike many other development finance institutions, DFC does not currently have an access to information policy.

Under the United States Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), DFC is obliged to respond to reasonably formulated requests for Agency records. However, DFC may apply exemptions from release to certain types of information and may charge fees in responding to requests. DFC has a designated FOIA officer who is trained in how to respond to requests and implement the law. You can learn more about filing a FOIA request at: https://www.dfc.gov/foia

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE CORPORATION (DFC)

The Office of Accountability is an independent office that addresses complaints about environmental or social issues related to DFC-supported projects. The office provides communities an opportunity to have concerns independently reviewed and addressed. If you submit a complaint to the Office of Accountability, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a problem solving dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the DFC complied with its policies to prevent environmental, social, human rights, and labor harms.

You can find more information about the Office of Accountability at: https://www.dfc.gov/who-we-are/office-accountability
