Private Actors Description

Amartha is Indonesia's pioneer and largest micro-financing lending platform and is headquartered in Indonesia. As of September 2022, ANR had 4,800+ field agents and 600+ client operational hubs across Java, Sumatra, and Sulawesi serving about 1.2 million borrowers.

ANR owns an operating subsidiary called PT Amarta Mikro Fintek ("AMF"), a micro-finance lending platform that provides loans and other financial inclusion related products to low-income households with limited or no access to financial services. It is mostly active in economically less developed regions of the Indonesian archipelago where it serves around 1 million low-income female borrowers. AMF has operational hubs across Java, Sumatra, Sulawesi, and Nusa Tenggara.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Unlike many other development finance institutions, DFC does not currently have an access to information policy.

Under the United States Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), DFC is obliged to respond to reasonably formulated requests for Agency records. However, DFC may apply exemptions from release to certain types of information and may charge fees in responding to requests. DFC has a designated FOIA officer who is trained in how to respond to requests and implement the law. You can learn more about filing a FOIA request at: <https://www.dfc.gov/foia>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE CORPORATION (DFC)

The Office of Accountability is an independent office that addresses complaints about environmental or social issues related to DFC-supported projects. The office provides communities an opportunity to have concerns independently reviewed and addressed. If you submit a complaint to the Office of Accountability, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a problem solving dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the DFC complied with its policies to prevent environmental, social, human rights, and labor harms.

You can find more information about the Office of Accountability at: <https://www.dfc.gov/who-we-are/office-accountability>
