Early Warning System Project Analysis

DFC direct debt loans to investment funds who will invest in small, and medium enterprises in agriculture and off-grid micro energy, and healthcare projects that provide financials service and primary care are screened as Financial Intermediary - C for environmental and social assessment. Based on DFC's due diligence, the Fund's downstream investments are anticipated to pose environmental and social risks that are site specific and can be readily mitigated through the application of sound environmental and social management practices. Therefore, all those downstream investments have been pre-screened as low risk and further review and consent is not required for these investments.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Unlike many other development finance institutions, DFC does not currently have an access to information policy.

Under the United States Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), DFC is obliged to respond to reasonably formulated requests for Agency records. However, DFC may apply exemptions from release to certain types of information and may charge fees in responding to requests. DFC has a designated FOIA officer who is trained in how to respond to requests and implement the law. You can learn more about filing a FOIA request at: <https://www.dfc.gov/foia>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE CORPORATION (DFC)

The Office of Accountability is an independent office that addresses complaints about environmental or social issues related to DFC-supported projects. The office provides communities an opportunity to have concerns independently reviewed and addressed. If you submit a complaint to the Office of Accountability, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a problem solving dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the DFC complied with its policies to prevent environmental, social, human rights, and labor harms.

You can find more information about the Office of Accountability at: <https://www.dfc.gov/who-we-are/office-accountability>
