Project Description

According to the Bank's website, DFC recently provided a $30,000,000 equity investment in the Fund. To enhance the development impact of this equity investment, DFC will provide a post-investment technical assistance ("TA") grant of $299,520 to the Fund to support the establishment of a fellowship program to help the Fund's portfolio companies improve their development impact, sustainability, and resilience in the following impact theme areas: climate change adaptation and mitigation, financial inclusion, healthcare access, digital connectivity, food security and agriculture, and gender equity. The TA is anticipated to support up to sixteen of the Fund's portfolio companies. The TA fellowship projects will be tailored to the portfolio companies' business models to further embed development impact into company operations, fill critical skills gaps, and build the capacity of the Fund's portfolio companies.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Unlike many other development finance institutions, DFC does not currently have an access to information policy.

Under the United States Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), DFC is obliged to respond to reasonably formulated requests for Agency records. However, DFC may apply exemptions from release to certain types of information and may charge fees in responding to requests. DFC has a designated FOIA officer who is trained in how to respond to requests and implement the law. You can learn more about filing a FOIA request at: <https://www.dfc.gov/foia>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE CORPORATION (DFC)

The Office of Accountability is an independent office that addresses complaints about environmental or social issues related to DFC-supported projects. The office provides communities an opportunity to have concerns independently reviewed and addressed. If you submit a complaint to the Office of Accountability, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a problem solving dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the DFC complied with its policies to prevent environmental, social, human rights, and labor harms.

You can find more information about the Office of Accountability at: <https://www.dfc.gov/who-we-are/office-accountability>
