Project Description

According to the Bank's website, DFC will provide a 20-year loan in the amount of $10.7 million to refinance an existing loan and to fund university campus expansion with additional classroom, dormitory, meeting, and office space.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

The Project was screened as a Category B under DFC's ESPP because impacts are site specific and readily mitigated.

Environmental and social issues associated with the Project include the need for appropriate occupational health and safety measures during construction, maintenance, and renovation activities; construction and solid waste disposal; and life and fire safety measures. Other issues include the need for robust contractor management systems to monitor environmental and social performance.

The Project does not involve physical or economic displacement. The buildings to be purchased for the Project are commercial in nature and there are no residents. There will be no impacts to indigenous peoples, biodiversity, or cultural heritage.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Unlike many other development finance institutions, DFC does not currently have an access to information policy.

Under the United States Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), DFC is obliged to respond to reasonably formulated requests for Agency records. However, DFC may apply exemptions from release to certain types of information and may charge fees in responding to requests. DFC has a designated FOIA officer who is trained in how to respond to requests and implement the law. You can learn more about filing a FOIA request at: <https://www.dfc.gov/foia>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE CORPORATION (DFC)

The Office of Accountability is an independent office that addresses complaints about environmental or social issues related to DFC-supported projects. The office provides communities an opportunity to have concerns independently reviewed and addressed. If you submit a complaint to the Office of Accountability, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a problem solving dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the DFC complied with its policies to prevent environmental, social, human rights, and labor harms.

You can find more information about the Office of Accountability at: <https://www.dfc.gov/who-we-are/office-accountability>
