Project Description

According to the DFC, Argentina Potash Corporation is receiving reimbursable Project Development ("PD") Funds for the establishment of a greenfield potash mine and processing facility across the Neuquen and Mendoza provinces in Argentina known as El Ceibo, to prepare the Project for potential DFC investment. The PD funding will support a structured program of technical and ESG activities designed to confirm the project's readiness for mining feasibility and construction of the mine. These activities include: (a) geological verification and classification of mineral resources under the SK-1300; (b) development of an Environmental and Social Impact Assessment aligned with IFC Performance Standards and national requirements; (c) preparation of a Preliminary Feasibility Study for resource and reserve upgrading; (d) acquisition of new high-resolution 3D seismic data to support horizontal well geo-steering; (e) required licensing and permitting processes; (f) stock exchange listing requirements; (g) re-domiciliation process; (h) detailed engineering for the pilot plant; and (i) Environmental Impact Assessment for the pilot plant required by Neuquén authorities.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Unlike many other development finance institutions, DFC does not currently have an access to information policy.

Under the United States Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), DFC is obliged to respond to reasonably formulated requests for Agency records. However, DFC may apply exemptions from release to certain types of information and may charge fees in responding to requests. DFC has a designated FOIA officer who is trained in how to respond to requests and implement the law. You can learn more about filing a FOIA request at: <https://www.dfc.gov/foia>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE CORPORATION (DFC)

The Office of Accountability is an independent office that addresses complaints about environmental or social issues related to DFC-supported projects. The office provides communities an opportunity to have concerns independently reviewed and addressed. If you submit a complaint to the Office of Accountability, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a problem solving dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the DFC complied with its policies to prevent environmental, social, human rights, and labor harms.

You can find more information about the Office of Accountability at: <https://www.dfc.gov/who-we-are/office-accountability>
