Project Description

As stated by the DFC, the project consists of the sale of electricity by the Insureds to one or more Moldovan state-owned entities in the energy sector, pursuant to standardized European electricity supply contracts. According to the bank, the Project will enable the Insureds to participate in Electricity Tenders. The Project is expected to offer competitive bids for electricity purchases and potentially delivery services in Moldova, and by extension, demonstrate the effectiveness of competition in the market. As a result of these purchases, the Project is expected to provide to Moldova 1,000 GWh of electricity annually, equivalent to 31% of Moldova's total electricity consumption, diversifying the supply of electricity and increasing the country's resilience to gas supply disruptions.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Unlike many other development finance institutions, DFC does not currently have an access to information policy.

Under the United States Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), DFC is obliged to respond to reasonably formulated requests for Agency records. However, DFC may apply exemptions from release to certain types of information and may charge fees in responding to requests. DFC has a designated FOIA officer who is trained in how to respond to requests and implement the law. You can learn more about filing a FOIA request at: <https://www.dfc.gov/foia>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE CORPORATION (DFC)

The Office of Accountability is an independent office that addresses complaints about environmental or social issues related to DFC-supported projects. The office provides communities an opportunity to have concerns independently reviewed and addressed. If you submit a complaint to the Office of Accountability, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a problem solving dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the DFC complied with its policies to prevent environmental, social, human rights, and labor harms.

You can find more information about the Office of Accountability at: <https://www.dfc.gov/who-we-are/office-accountability>
